

Fire on the Land and in our Lives

Indigenous Perspectives of Northern California

Wednesday , March 10th 2-3:30pm

The Honorable Ron W. Goode
Chairman of the North Fork Mono Tribe

Wednesday , March 17th 1-2:30pm

Members of the Kashia Pomo Band of Pomo
Indians with Tribal Historic Preservation Office
Anthony Macias (Kashia Pomo)

Monday , March 15th 1-2:30pm

Mike Ming (Descended from Cherokee & Comanche Tribes)
Staff Chief, Behavioral Health & Wellness for Cal Fire

Wednesday , March 17th 2:30-4pm

Cultural Fire Management Council
Elizabeth Azzuz (Yurok, Karuk)
Rick O'Rourke (Yurok)

Warren Parrish (Hoopa-enrolled, Pomo, Yurok)
Battalion Chief, Behavioral Health & Wellness for Cal Fire

Co-facilitated by Director of Native American Studies Dr. Erica Tom and Native American Initiative Representative Amal Munayer. Contact tome@sonoma.edu for zoom information.

Hosted by the Department of Native American Studies with support from the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, the Department of Anthropology and the Human Development Program, the Department of History, the University Library, CAASE, the HUB, and the Native American Progressive Students.

Heritage, Perspective, and Practices of the North Fork Mono Tribe

Honorable Ron W. Goode
North Fork Mono Tribe
Tribal Chairman

Wednesday
March 10th, 2-3:30pm

Co-facilitated by Director of Native American Studies Dr. Erica Tom and Native American Representative Amal Munayer.

Please contact tome@sonoma.edu for zoom information.

Hosted by the Department of Native American Studies with support from the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, the Department of Anthropology and the Human Development Program, the Department of History, the University Library, CAASE, the HUB, and the Native American Progressive Students.

Increasing Wildfires, Increasing Mental Health Challenges

Monday, March 15th 1-2:30pm

Warren Parrish

Battalion Chief
Behavioral Health
and Wellness Program
for Cal Fire

*Hoopla-Enrolled
Pomo and Yurok Tribes*

Mike Ming

Staff Chief
Behavioral Health
and Wellness Program
for Cal Fire

Descended from Cherokee and Comanche Tribes

Co-facilitated by Director of Native American Studies Dr. Erica Tom and Native American Initiative Representative Amal Munayer.

Please contact tome@sonoma.edu for zoom information

Hosted by the Department of Native American Studies with support from the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, the Department of Anthropology and the Human Development Program, the Department of History, the University Library, CAASE, the HUB, and the Native American Progressive Students.

BETWEEN TWO FIRES

Wednesday , March 17th 1-2:30pm

Members of the Kashia Band of Pomo Indians share their experiences during the Myers and Walbridge Fires.

Co-facilitated by Director of Native American Studies Dr. Erica Tom and Native American Initiative Representative Amal Munayer.

Contact tome@sonoma.edu for zoom registration and information.

Photo Credit: Kashia Band of Pomo Indians Tribal Government Website

Hosted by the Department of Native American Studies with support from the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, the Department of Anthropology and the Human Development Program, the Department of History, the University Library, CAASE, the HUB, and the Native American Progressive Students.

Yurok and Karuk Tribes Return Good Fire to the Land

Wednesday, March 17th 2:30-4pm

Rick O'Rourke
Yurok

Photo Credit: Alexandra Hootnick

*Reclaiming Our Rights to Use
Fire
as a Land Management Tool.*

Please contact tome@sonoma.edu for zoom registration and information.

Elizabeth Azzuz
Yurok, Karuk

Photo Credit: Kiliiii Yuyan

Co-Facilitated by Director of Native American Studies Dr. Erica Tom and Native American Initiative Representative Amal Munayer

Hosted by the Department of Native American Studies with support from the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, the Department of Anthropology and the Human Development Program, the Department of History, the University Library, CAASE, the HUB, and the Native American Progressive Students.